THE RITE OF PEACE

"Peace I leave you, my peace I give you; not as the world gives do I give you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid" (John 14:27). Peace descends from above; it is the gift by which Christ himself prepares us to become one in the sacrament of his Body and Blood. By coming together for the Eucharist, we demonstrate our readiness to forgive each other, to accept the peace of Christ into our hearts and to exchange it with one another.

The exchange of "the peace" is not the expression of mere good wishes. It is the outward sign of a gift inwardly received and as such is marked by reverence and dignity. "The priest may give the sign of peace to the ministers but always remains within the sanctuary, so as not to disturb the celebration" (GIRM, art. 154). At the same time, "it is appropriate that each person offer the sign of peace only to those who are nearest and in a sober manner" (GIRM, art. 82). "While the sign of peace is being given, one may say, The peace of the Lord be with you always, to which the response is Amen" (GIRM, art. 154).
